

Vets 2 Feds Career Development Program Student Trainee (Contracting)

- Are you searching for a career?
- Do you want more than just a job?
- Are you using your VA or other educational benefits?
- Do you want to continue to serve your country?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, we may have a career for you!

The Vets to Feds (V2F) Career Development Program for Student Trainee (Contracting) is sponsored by the Interagency Council on Veterans Employment. This new program is designed to recruit and support the development of our Nation's Student Veterans for careers with the Federal Government. The program will offer you the opportunity to pursue valuable experience related to the contracting career field while pursuing your education. Trainees who complete the program will transition into Federal Contract Specialist positions – one of the Government's most mission critical positions.

This rigorous paid program includes:

- Formal and informal training
- Challenging work assignments
- Potential for accelerated promotions

If you are selected for this opportunity you:

- Can earn a full-time starting salary of $21,840 or $24,518
- Have the potential of earning up to $65,000, depending on location
- Are entitled to a benefits package including paid vacation, sick leave, health and life insurance, a retirement plan, a 401k equivalent plan, and paid federal holidays

Apply between: July 6 -13, 2011
