Featuring Guest Speaker

John C. Murphy

BREVARD COUNTY JUDGE

Colonel, U.S. Army, Retired

Retired Colonel John C. Murphy was commissioned into the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant in May, 1979. He began his career as a Infantry Rifle Platoon Leader in the Ohio Army National Guard and has had a wide range of Special Forces assignments during his active duty service. Among COL Murphy's decorations are a Combat Infantryman's Badge, Bronze Star Medal, two Meritorious Service Medals, Joint Service Commendation Medal and seven Foreign Awards. His last assignment was as Brigade Commander, 1st Brigade (Initial Military Training), 80th Division (Institutional Training), Fort Meade, Maryland. COL Murphy currently commands the 354th Civil Affairs Brigade. In his civilian career, COL Murphy served as a managing shareholder of a law firm specializing in elder care. He was elected Brevard County Judge and commenced his judicial duties in January of 2007. COL Murphy currently resides in Melbourne Beach, Florida and is married with one daughter.
